SATURDAY, AUGUST 3, 1890.

For Governor,
EDWARD G. BURLEIGH.
FOR REPRESENTATIVE TO CONGRESS.
S. D. DAVIS, JR., BOSTON.
TOM DAVIS—CHARLES A. SOUTELLE.

REPUBLICAN

County Convention.
The signatures of the County of Penobscot are to be made by Soutelle in Con-CITY HALL, BANGOR, ON THE
THURSDAY, THE 7TH DAY OF AUGUST NEXT.

AT 10 o'clock A.M.

to nominate him as candidate for Senator. A committee of County Attorney, for Clerk of County, County Treasurer, County Sheriff, County Sheriff, County Sheriff, County Sheriff, and such other business as may come before them.

Chairman of Representation.

Each of the towns and plantations one delegate, for every fifty votes cast for the Republicans cast, and two from each town containing over twenty-five to one in excess of the last, after which, the delegate votes shall be added and shall be two delegates. By vote of the County Convention, the following day, the representation of each town shall be held by the Maine Central Railroad Company.

The County Committee will be in session at the County House, on the morning of the 7th, and a session to be held at the same time.

By order of the County Committee, Chairman.

H. C. SNOW, Secretary.

In 1888 Senator West declared "a war of extermination upon protected industries." Hostilities have been renewed by him, with his mouth, this week.

The telegraphic report of the Piscataqua County Convention, as it appears in The White, gave the name of Charles J. Hale as the candidate for Judge of Probate. This was an error. The presentable Judge of Probate and staunch Republican, Hon. Eliza J. Hale, was renominated, and will be reelected.

Senator Blair introduced a resolution Friday calling on the Committee on Rules to report within four days a rule for the incorporation of the previous question or some method of limiting and closing debate in the Senate. Objection was made to its immediate consideration on the Democratic side, and the resolution went over until to-morrow. If the Senate intends to give the people the legislation they demand some such rule will have to be adopted.

It is hard to please Democratic organs. Twenty-five years ago "the immense public debt would never be paid." Later they agreed because it was "being paid too rapidly." Last year they voted in a prolonged debate about "the evil of a great sum plus in the Treasury." Now they are combining in the white to "the certain debt." In the meantime the party which saved the Nation and legislated all its prosperity is at the helm, and the public will feel safe.

Postmaster General Wanamaker has made a contract for stamped envelopes and newspaper wrappers for the next two years which will save the Government nearly half a million dollars, allowing for the natural increase in the amount consumed, which the growth of the postal business will call for. This economy on the part of the Postmaster General will prove very gratifying to the country at large, but will do little for our part of the next Democratic cry of "extravagance."

Democratic Senators give out the report that an agreement has been reached by which the Election bill will not be taken up until next winter. The probability is that there is no substantial foundation for such a report. Certainly no excuse satisfactory to the people could be made for such a course. Any failure to pass an Election bill will be a grave mistake. The debate on the "Taft" bill clearly demonstrates the purpose of the Democrats to use up time and unless some action is taken to stop this useless flow of talk it will, as Senator Blair said, be Christmas time before the bill is disposed of.

The Boston Journal pertinently reminds the southerners who, like Governor Taylor, of Tennessee, disdain the Election Bill "an evasive stab at a proslavery South" that this is equivalent to saying that the prosperity of the South is based upon "political fraud and intimidation. Just so." Every man who objects to a National Election law becomes in a sense accessory to the principle that no Congressional district in the country is under obligation to hold a fair election. Establish this principle, and where is our government?

The Biddulph Standard likes to criticize the Democratic party. Democratic papers that pride in the conservatism of its party at a "sum" convention shouldn't complain if somebody hits back. It is pretty evident that the Commercial's blow drew blood. Commercial.

So did, but not just in the way our contemporary would have us readers believe. It was the Standard's own blower that did the business, making the Commercial a victim of its own twaddle. After it raged up against the Standard and Machine again a few more times it will realize that it is not equal to the contest it has on its hands. In the meantime the Republicans are enjoying this Democratic partying match.

If any one doubts that the United States Government has begun to build up a navy which shall stand equal to that of any nation, he should look over the record of the Standard of Evolution says the New York Tribune. The magnificent White Squadrions has just responded after one of the most remarkable ordeals in the history of our navy, marked by many losses and triumphs. Given the nations of Europe and the free republics of South America the date has received the most generous praise. It has been received with all the courtesy and official distinction which foreign governments command. Everywhere administration and communication have been warmly received by the various vessels throughout and for that drift, discipline and ability of the naval officers. And now, but of all the accolades are those as given the ports which Americans visit in the new world's world of the New Republics.
